[redacted] Ford Modeling Agency, 344 East 59th Street, furnished the following information:

b6
b7C

On January 8, 1976, her office received an anonymous letter addressed to "Ford Models Inc.," 344 East 59th Street, New York City. The handwritten envelope was postmarked at New York, New York 10001, on January 7, 1976. The letter contained therein is printed in ink and contains a possible threat against the agency. [redacted] believes the threat to be directed against her, however, she is not certain.

b7C

The letter contains references to a person at the agency considering himself to be God and makes further reference to someone at the agency having an astrologer. [redacted] believes the reference concerning God has to do with her although she can offer no explanation about the astrology reference.

b7C

[redacted] stated that the signature as such, which is "I.R.A.," only brings to her mind the Irish Republican Army. She stated that she has no connection whatsoever with the Irish Republican Army and can think of no other identifying data concerning the initials "I.R.A."

b6
b7C

[redacted] believes the letter was possibly written by a young woman, who perhaps tried to apply as a model with her agency and was turned down. She can recall no specific individuals who would have been so angry at being turned down that they would have written such a letter. She stated that her agency receives quite a few of these letters and usually no attention is paid to them. In this instance, however, she felt that the threat was such that she should forward it to the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI).

[redacted] added that the only persons in her agency to touch the letter would have been [redacted], who runs the switchboard and who opened the letter, and her secretary, [redacted]. She added that [redacted] had printed over
